

GOVERNOR WILSON MADISON SQUARE TO GOV. WILSON

Madison Square Demonstration
Continues Over an Hour.

CHANTED "WE WANT WILSON"

Oscar Underwood Appeared With Gov.
Wilson—The Nominee Says That Victory Is Certain.

New York, October 31.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, speaking tonight before an audience that filled every corner of Madison Square Garden, received the greatest ovation of his campaign for the presidency.

Entering the hall at 9:11 o'clock, after speaking before an enthusiastic audience in the Bronx, the democratic candidate stood for an hour and three minutes at the railing of the speaker's platform waiting for the demonstration to end.

"No man could fail to be moved by a demonstration such as we have witnessed tonight," he said, with every evidence of deep feeling, as he finally made himself heard: "Yet I am the more thrilled because I realize it is a demonstration for a cause, and not for a man."

Starting with the first shouts from the doorway when Governor Wilson arrived by automobile from the Bronx meeting, the Madison Square outbreak defied his utmost efforts to quell it. The governor's men, for quiet brought only renewed cheers.

Chants of "We Want Wilson," shook the hall and when the cheering had slightly subsided it was started with renewed vigor by young women who forced their way to the front of the speaker's stand and inspired the crowd to fresh efforts.

Governor Wilson spoke extemporaneously, but adhered closely in his Madison Square speech to the program he had made earlier at the Bronx meeting. He had spoken but a few minutes, and was declaring that the progressive party, "wherever it could capture the regular republican organization, was regular and wherever it could not, was irregular," when a man in the middle aisle of the hall directly beneath the speaker's stand, shouted: "Governor, talk about the Baltimore platform."

Cries of "Put him out," came from all parts of the hall, and three policemen grabbed the disturber and rushed him to a doorway. Governor Wilson leaned over the rail and called to the policeman: "Don't put anybody out, but the man was ejected. It is inconvenient to have more than one man speak at a time, but this is a free country," added Governor Wilson, amidst cheers from the crowd.

Mrs. Wilson and her daughters, in a box near the speaker's stand, were apparently greatly moved by the demonstration for the governor, and exchanged smiles with him as he tried to obtain order.

Congressman Oscar W. Underwood, who had been Governor Wilson's opponent for the democratic nomination, and Congressman William Sulzer, candidate for governor of New York, preceded Governor Wilson at Madison Square Garden. Mr. Underwood had continued but a few minutes when Governor Wilson arrived, and he gave way before the demonstration for the governor.

"Government is an enterprise of mankind—not of parties," Governor Wilson said. "As election day approaches I have a greater and greater feeling of satisfaction because I know that the American people are about to make one of the most vital choices of their lives. From one ocean to the other men are becoming aware that in less than a week the common people of America will come into their own."

"I know from the reports coming from all parts of the country that the new party has been spreading throughout the country. Therefore, it must be one of those republicans who are dissatisfied with the regular organization and its avowed purpose and program."

"Vote for Wilson," the answer. "All men have to do is to realize that the common enterprises of life are the enterprises of politics; that a man is not voting an abstract political creed, but is voting a program of justice and of right when he votes at the polls. Now, if you want that program which is going to do next Tuesday?"

"Vote for Wilson," interrupted a voice, and there was great applause. "I appreciate the compliment," continued the speaker, "but I want to say that unless you people put yourselves into Wilson he won't be worth anything. The one thing that will set reform forward in this country, my friends, is a united people aware that a united government does not consist of a president and of something that in my time the people have not yet captured a senate."

"And it consists of something more. If you have a democratic government at Washington, and do not have a democratic government in the state, you have no conducting medium by which to signal to Washington."

"You have got to have a vital organization of purpose spreading throughout the United States, in order that great bodies of men may unite together for the great project of emancipation, and the only possible chance of having a great united organization after the fourth of March next is to vote the democratic ticket."

"After next Tuesday we shall know not what men are going to profess, but what men are going to do. God be pitiful to the man who promises the American people that he is not ready to perform. The case is made up; the case is before the jury."

"I myself do not doubt the verdict, but I want to say to you that the verdict shall be that the people of the United States have voted upon their own merits."

TELEPHONE HEADS CENTRALIZED HERE

Southern Bell and Cumberland Companies United in Atlanta—Chapley New General Counsel.

Since the acquisition of the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph company by the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph company last February, the headquarters of the combined services have been gradually concentrated in Atlanta, transferring offices and employees here. Another centralization will be taken today when the legal headquarters of the companies will be located in this city. The Cumberland company's legal offices were in Nashville, Tenn.

The location of the legal heads of the company in Atlanta is incident to the resignation of W. L. Granbery as general counsel for the Cumberland company. Mr. Granbery enters the practice of law in Nashville. Following his resignation W. T. Gentry, president of both companies, has made the following appointments:

Hunt Chipley New General Counsel. Hunt Chipley, of New York, as general counsel for the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph company and the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph company.

H. E. W. Palmer general attorney for both companies. Brutus J. Clay, counsel for both companies.

The headquarters of the entire staff will be in Atlanta. This will be pleasing news to the friends of Mr. Chipley, who formerly lived in Atlanta and was general counsel for the Southern Bell company prior to his removal to New York, some three years ago.

M. Palmer, who has been with the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph company for a number of years, becomes general attorney for both the Southern Bell and Cumberland companies, and it is gratifying to his friends that the enlarged field of his activities does not mean his leaving Atlanta.

The same may be said of Mr. Clay, who has been connected with the Southern Bell company a number of years.

Operates in Eleven States. The Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph company operates in a territory embracing the states of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama; the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph company operates in the states of Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana and parts of Indiana and Illinois.

The following other officials of both companies are located here: W. T. Gentry, president; J. Epps Brown, vice president and general manager; J. M. B. Hoxsey, vice president and treasurer; Addison Maupin, assistant treasurer, and C. J. Holditch, general auditor.

KIMMEL CLAIMANT RUBBER IMPOSTOR

Jury Gives $20,000 Insurance Money to Sister of Real George Kimmel.

St. Louis, Mo., October 31.—The Kimmel claimant, who was held away at a second trial to the satisfaction of the jury, for it tonight returned a verdict in favor of Mrs. Edna K. Bonslett, who was suing in the state district court to collect two $10,000 insurance policies on the life of her brother, George A. Kimmel, who disappeared in Kansas City in 1898. Mrs. Bonslett was allowed $20,460, including interest.

The verdict was received tonight after the jurors had deliberated two hours.

The claimant, who had whittled away the time propounding mathematical questions to the court deputies, smiled slightly and silently walked from the courtroom.

This was the fourth trial of the case. Mrs. Bonslett was before given a favorable verdict in the United States circuit court, but lost on an appeal. Twice jurors failed to arrive at a conclusion.

Kimmel was a bank cashier in Arkansas City, Kan. The claimant was formerly a prisoner in the Auburn, N. Y., penitentiary, where he was known as Andrew J. White.

He tried to prove his identity as Kimmel through recalling alleged former associates and incidents in Niles, Mich.

SIX ARE INJURED WHEN DYNAMITE SHELL EXPLODES

Mrs. Fitzhugh Lee Is Knocked Unconscious.

FIVE CHILDREN BADLY BURNED

Supposedly Empty Cartridge Set Off by Hatpin During Explanation to Youngsters.

THE INJURED. Mrs. Fitzhugh Lee, burned about the face and chest. Part of left hand blown off and thumb of right hand severely injured. Y. T. Lee, aged 6 years, burned upon face and body. Julia Lee, aged 5 years, burned upon face and body. Watson Lee, aged 3 years, burned upon face and body. Davis Lee, aged 6 months, burned upon hands. Chester Lee, aged 9 years, burned upon face and hands.

Believing a powerful dynamite cap, which her 6-year-old son, "Y. T.," had brought home, to be a discharged pistol cartridge, Mrs. Lee, at her home on Lakewood avenue, yesterday afternoon examined the explosive while her five children gathered around her. She probed the interior of the shell with a hatpin, gazing on with innocent curiosity, the little ones crowded around the porch swing in which she was sitting, when suddenly the harmless-looking shell exploded with a roar that shook the house.

Mrs. Lee's left hand was blown almost entirely off; the thumb of her right hand was partially severed, and she was injured about the face and chest. She was rendered unconscious, and will be confined to bed for several days.

All Five Children Injured. None of the five children escaped. Chester was hurt about the face and hands, and "Y. T.," who had brought the cartridge to his mother, was burned about the face and body. Julia, the little girl, who held in her lap the baby, Davis, was burned about the face and hands, while her charge was burned upon the face and head. The least hurt was Watson, who escaped with minor burns.

Three of the injured children were confined to bed, but the other two were able to walk about the house. Gangrene poisoning is feared, and physicians are taking every precaution to prevent complications.

House Is Damaged. A part of the porch swing in which Mrs. Lee was sitting was splintered, and when she reached home with the shattered by the explosion, "Y. T.," returning home from school, found the cap on the sidewalk. Mrs. Lee was sitting in the porch swing, surrounded by Chester, Julia, Watson and Davis when he reached home with his treasure and begged the mother to examine it. Mrs. Lee began to explain how a pistol cartridge exploded, and in the confusion the powder was produced by concussion. This was what caused the explosion.

Mrs. Lee is the wife of Fitzhugh Lee, and is one of the best-known residents living in the Lakewood Heights section.

HADLEY MENTIONED TO SUCCEED SHERMAN

If Taft Should Win Pressure Would Be Strong for Progressive Vice President.

New York, October 31.—The selection of a successor to Vice President Sherman as the republican candidate to go before the electoral college in January was the subject of informal discussion today among members of the republican national committee, now in New York. Governor Herbert S. Hadley, of Missouri, has been advanced as the choice of several members of the committee, but no effort has been made as yet to settle upon a candidate.

The fact that Chairman Hill has delayed the meeting of the national committee until November 12, a week after election, will, it is believed, prevent any general agreement upon the vice presidential candidate until after the results of the election are known.

Hadley, of Missouri, Taft and the republican electors be successful, or should the election be thrown into congress by the failure of any candidate to secure a majority, it is believed the pressure would become strong upon the national committee to name Governor Hadley, Senator Borah, Senator Cummins or some other man who has been prominently identified in the progressive movement, but who did not join in the new progressive party.

The success of either Wilson or Roosevelt at the election Tuesday would make the naming of a republican vice presidential candidate the next week only a matter of formality.

Republican leaders here declare that no communication has been had with Governor Hadley or any others whose names have been proposed as to their willingness to accept the post-election nomination if offered them.

OUTLAWED CLUBS MAKE NO FIGHT SEEK TO "GET" BY DYNAMITERS

Police Committee Denies Permits to Four Organizations.

Warren Blocks Attempt to Grant Permits to All—Maddox to Oppose Report in Council.

The attempt to let down the bars in the "locker club" fight before the police committee of council, and to grant permits to all clubs, was blocked by Alderman James E. Warren at the hearing yesterday afternoon. The Moose club, the Bees, the Georgia Athletic and the Central made no fight, and will await the supreme court decision on their injunctions against the city.

Two clubs are being held up because they are operating without permits. They are the Southern club and Knights of the Mystic Ark.

The committee will report favorably on the petitions of the Piedmont Driving club, the Capital City, the Georgian Terrace, the Atlanta Athletic, the University, the Elks, the M. & M., the Metropolitan, the Transportation, the Standard, the Turn Verein, the Beavers, the T. M. A., the Owls, Eagles and the Press.

"The committee is not making a fight against locker clubs," said Chairman W. G. Humphrey, "if we are going to grant permits to those who were turned down, let's be consistent and grant permits to all. There can't be too many for me."

Chief Makes Recommendations. Chief of Police Beavers, following a visit he made to every club in the city in company with Chairman Humphrey, recommended turning down the Georgia Athletic, the Moose, Knights of the Mystic Ark and the Central. He also urged changing the architecture in the Theatrical and the T. M. A. clubs to eliminate alcoves and private rooms, also changing the entrance to the Eagles' club so that the members do not interfere with the members of the Y. W. C. A. The two latter organizations have their clubrooms in the same building.

Lawrence Calhoun, attorney and former president of the Order of Beavers, made an appeal for the organization, and Thomas Winn appeared in behalf of the Eagles. The other clubs were not represented.

Under a ruling by the board, the outlawed clubs have a right to renew their petitions every time the board meets, until they are forced out of business by the police or a decision of the supreme court.

Chief Beavers told the committee that it should strike at the clubs that are operated by one man for profit only. He suggested that those seeking to protect the poor man's club should organize a club on a strictly fraternal basis, and made assurance that the committee would grant a permit to operate to prove that it is not biased.

The committee may ask council for a contingent fund of $1,000 to carry on investigations at different times. Alderman James W. Maddox indicated by his attitude during the session that he will oppose in council any attempt to discriminate against one or four in favor of others. Councilman Harvey Hatcher asked the club laws for data concerning the method of serving drinks in the clubs.

Warren Protests All Permits. Alderman Warren and Councilman Andrews took the position that all clubs should be denied permits, because they are all violating the law, each expressing opinions similar to that of Acting Mayor Chandler in his veto message. Alderman Warren protested against granting permits to new clubs, and opposed the Press club petition. He defended the Metropolitan club, one of the clubs attacked by Chief Beavers.

Alderman Humphrey told the committee that it could not be expected that clubs charging dues of $12 a year could furnish the members with the same comfort and entertainment as the Capital City club, which he explained, had an income of $45,000 annually.

Outlawed clubs say that council will not stand for the discrimination, and that it will run the steam roller over the report.

WOODROW WILSON TO CARRY 40 STATES

Roosevelt to Get Five and Taft Three, Says Chafin—Debs and Chafin to Divide Others.

El Paso, Texas, October 31.—"Wilson will carry forty states; Roosevelt five; Taft three, and Debs and I will divide the others," this prediction was made by Eugene Chafin, candidate of the prohibition party for president, in a speech here today. Other declarations made by him include:

"Liquor is the real cause of the high cost of living."

"Local option and local prohibition is not worth a hoof. Stop it by constitutional amendment and it will remain stopped."

"Abolish liquor as we abolished slavery—by constitutional amendment."

"Give us a million votes this time and we will elect a president next time."

BEGGING FOR LIFE WOOD IS KILLED

Oakley Kills His Stepfather in the Alabama Capitol.

Tragedy Occurred Near Office of Gov. O'Neal—The Men Had Quarreled Over Property.

Montgomery, Ala., October 31.—Under the roof that sheltered the Confederate government and in the shadow of the office of Governor Emmett O'Neal, W. G. Oakley, half-nephew of James G. Oakley, president of the state convict board, fired three shots into the body of his stepfather, T. A. Wood, this afternoon after he had refused Wood's appeal for life. Oakley surrendered and is in the county jail under charge of first degree murder. A special grand jury term will be held November 6 for the purpose of investigating this shooting.

The shooting occurred in the old offices of the secretary of state, which are now being placed in condition for the state convict department. James G. Oakley was with Wood and Oakley a few seconds before the shooting began, just before the first shot was fired. Wood was in the corridor leading to Governor O'Neal's office.

Cause of the Shooting. The men were enemies because of a chancery suit in this county over property left by Mrs. Wood. Oakley contended that he was not receiving his share and was attempting to break the will, while James Oakley and Wood were defending the instrument.

Governor O'Neal expresses indignation over the killing and the fact that it occurred at the capitol and just across the corridor from the governor's office.

Wood and Oakley came to Montgomery from their respective homes in Odenville, St. Clair county, and Ashley, Ala., to give testimony, which was during the morning. Oakley appeared with a pistol and trouble was feared, but capitol employees persuaded him to lay his weapon aside, not knowing that he had another. About three o'clock Oakley, Wood, James G. Oakley and D. G. Traxler, chief clerk in the convict department, were in the offices of the secretary of state, which were vacated during the early morning.

Said He Had Left in Him. Witnesses say Oakley was heard to remark that "I am in the army, and have hell in me." Traxler then walked out of the office. Oakley slammed the door behind him, and President Oakley, fearing trouble, immediately left the office and walked into the capitol corridor. Oakley fired two shots in Wood's head and the third struck near the heart.

After the shooting Oakley ran down the corridors of the capitol, and when he passed Adolph Dietrich, capitol gardener, he asked "where is Jim Oakley?" He walked out of the capitol door and down Washington street to the jail, where he informed the officers that he had killed a man and was ready to surrender.

MRS. CLEVELAND TO LOSE HER FRANKING PRIVILEGE

Washington, October 31.—A technicality may deprive Mrs. Grover Cleveland, widow of the ex-president, of her franking privilege after her coming marriage to Professor Thomas J. Preston. The law which granted the same right to Mrs. Harrison, widow of ex-President Harrison, provides that the "autograph signature of Frances F. Cleveland or of Anna S. Harrison" must appear on all franked matter.

Dismayed by Rout of Their Armies, Turkish Minister Will Submit Peace Proposals.

SHORTEST WAR ON RECORD

Great Victory Won by Bulgarians in Three Days' Battle Has Brought the Turks to Terms.

LONDON, November 1.—Nasim Pasha, the Turkish minister of war, has been either shot or taken prisoner, according to a dispatch from Sofia to The Post.

London, October 31.—A four days' battle in Thrace has ended in the triumph of the Bulgarian commander-in-chief, General Savoff, whose skillful strategy has probably brought to a close one of the shortest and most remarkable wars on record.

A great Turkish army, estimated at over 200,000 men, has been defeated and is in a hasty retreat. Constantinople is believed to be at the mercy of the victorious Bulgarian army, and a council, sitting at the porte, is discussing the advisability of suing for peace.

Such is the news which comes from Constantinople. It is only a fortnight since Turkey declared war. The first week of the campaign closed with the dramatic fall of Kirk-Kilissee, fully revealing for the first time the disorganization, bad morale and inefficient commissariat of the Turkish army.

Turkish Army May Be Cut Off. Today that army is defeated, routed within 50 miles from Constantinople and possibly its retreat within the capital's line of defenses is cut off.

Only the briefest and vaguest accounts of the great battle have yet been received, for the war has been especially remarkable in that not a single war correspondent has been allowed at the front except in the case of the little Montenegrin campaign against Scutari.

Thus no independent personal narratives of the absorbing events have been possible, and the world has had to depend on biased official accounts provided by the respective governments or confused details supplied by wounded soldiers.

Apparently Nazim Pasha has been completely outmaneuvered by Savoff's army. The Bulgarian turning movement along the Black sea coast now appears to have been a feint, which induced the Turkish commander to throw his main army to the eastward, so that effect that the Bulgarian force on this side had been the greatest since the capture of Constantinople in holding the Turks in check.

Fighting Most Stubborn. In fact, this point seems a little in doubt. The Bulgarians gave away, and thus enabled Nazim Pasha to report to Constantinople some success in this direction.

In the meantime, however, General Savoff hurled his great strength against the Turk's weakened left wing, which he crushed in at Luleburgaz. The fighting along the whole front, which evidently has been the most stubborn and determined character, was carried on day and night without intermission, and both sides lost heavily.

The capture of Nazim Pasha's headquarters at Tchoria, to which town the defeated Turkish retreated, has not as yet been reported, but is hourly expected at Sofia. In this event the Turks will be forced within the defensive lines of Tchatalja, the only remaining fortified position protecting Constantinople. It lies 15 miles to the north-west of the capitol.

Adrianople still holds out, but has been shelled by the Bulgarians.

lost its importance, now that the Turks have met their death at Luleburgaz. It is believed a peace settlement will be arranged either by the porte suing for peace, or through intervention.

Difficult Diplomatic Problems.

And an interesting question involving difficult diplomatic problems will immediately arise as to the division of the spoils of war—a question concerning not only the victorious allies, but also Russia, Austria, Roumania and possibly other powers.

The campaign of the other Balkan states continues with the success which throughout has attended them. Scutari has not yet been captured, but Ipek has fallen to the Montenegrins. The Servians have taken Prirend and Greece is occupying the islands in Aegean, in addition to various towns of Macedonia.

The powers, fearing disorders and massacres in Turkey, are hurrying warships to the various ports of the country to protect foreign residents.

A noticeable feature of the war is the insignificant parts played by the Turkish and Greek fleets.

TURKEY CONSIDERS QUESTION OF APPEALING FOR PEACE

Constantinople, November 1.—(Special.)—Serious news has been received from the front. The council of ministers is still sitting at the porte. It is believed that the ministers are discussing the question of concluding peace with the Balkan states.

The exact nature of the latest advances from the battle line in Thrace has not been made known, but last evening the government received the following report from Nafiz Pasha, the war minister and commander-in-chief of the Turkish forces:

"Our eastern army has been engaged for the last few days in serious fighting with the Bulgarian forces between Luleburgaz and Viza. Our army corps, concentrated at Luleburgaz and to the north, are offering vigorous resistance to the enemy advancing in this direction.

ATROCITIES ARE COMMITTED BY THE RETREATING TURKS

London, October 31.—The Serbian legation has received a dispatch from Belgrade giving accounts by returned Serbian officers of atrocities committed by the Turkish troops before abandoning the country conquered by the Serbians.

"Wherever the Turks passed," says the dispatch, "the Serbian army found only dead strewn with bodies of men, women and children, mutilated in the most barbarous fashion. Bodies of men were also found bound to trees. They had been burned alive by means of fires kindled under their feet. One body bore indications of having been roasted on a gridiron.

"VOTE FOR WILSON NOV. 5," IS CALL MADE TO GEORGIA

Every democrat is urged to go to the polls and vote on Tuesday, November 5.

Georgia is one of the very few states in the union that requires the successful electors for president and vice president to secure a clear majority. While it is not believed there is any danger in Georgia from the new progressive party, it is desirable that all democrats make a showing of their faith by going to the polls. There must be more than one democratic vote for each one of the opposition.

Georgia Senators Urge Vote.

A telegram received by The Constitution signed by A. O. Bacon and Hoke Smith, United States senators from Georgia, urges Georgia democrats to get out a big vote. The telegram follows:

New York, October 31, 1912.—Editor Constitution: The election of Wilson next Tuesday assured, but we need every possible vote in Georgia to give us a popular majority. We urge every democrat to cast his ballot next Tuesday for Wilson electors.

A. O. BACON, H. HOKE SMITH.

DR. CHARLES HICKS DIES AT HOME IN MT. VERNON

Mt. Vernon, Ga., October 31.—(Special.)—Dr. Charles Hicks, one of the most prominent physicians of the state and former president of the Georgia Medical association, died at his home here this afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock. Dr. Hicks was stricken with paralysis about eight years ago. At that time he was a resident of Dublin. About four years ago he moved his place of residence to Mt. Vernon, and has since resided here continuously. He never recovered even partially from the first stroke of paralysis, and the last few years of his life have been ones of extreme suffering. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alice Hicks, and four sons.

Donnell as soliciting freight agent for the Georgia Southern and Florida railway in Atlanta on November 1, according to announcement given out yesterday by John M. Cuthbert, general freight agent, with offices at Macon. This is a deserved promotion for Mr. Butler, who is in recognition of his faithful service in the position which he has held.

"HALLOWEEN NICHT" CELEBRATED BY SCOTS

The Atlanta Scottish association celebrated "Halloween nicht" in their hall in the Klier building last night. The occasion was celebrated in the true style of the land of the thistle. Old Scottish songs were sung and Scottish customs of Halloween were observed. The evening was brightened, too, by the presence of three of whom who entered as heartily into the festivities as the older people.

ALLEGED SLAVERS HELD UNDER BONDS

Walter Pounds and Clarence Rhodes Must Face Grand Jury Investigation.

Macon, Ga., October 31.—(Special.)—Walter Pounds and Clarence A. Rhodes, both of Burke county, the latter a wealthy planter, were today held under bonds of $1,000 and $500, respectively, by United States Commissioner L. M. Ewer, to await the action of the United States grand jury in investigation of the white slave charges against them.

The charges against Walter Pounds, principal witness for the government, yesterday morning before the trial, and sought to influence her testimony. The charges against Walter E. Rhodes, brother of Clarence Rhodes, of intimidating witness and violation of the white slave act was dismissed. Walter Rhodes owns a plantation of 2,000 acres in Burke county and has a wife and eight children.

The principal witnesses today were the mother and father of Susie James, Mr. and Mrs. Holman James, of Bath, S. C. The charges against Pounds and Rhodes included the alleged slave traffic in the James girl. It was testified to that Pounds had kept the James girl at his house and she was compelled to do the cooking and that she became afraid to leave because of threats he had made against her.

Mrs. James testified that Pounds made the statement that he would shoot her daughter's brains out if she tried to leave him.

Ola Frazier, one of the three girls who were taken to Burke county from Bath, S. C. in Clarence Rhodes' auto, testified to threats made by Pounds against Susie James if she tried to leave him. Holman James, the father of Susie, swore that he went to see his daughter and get her to come back home and he found her badly frightened and begging for officers to come and get her away. Special agents of the government testified to finding the girl in Pounds' home. The kidnapping charge has been abandoned by the government.

Dr. Peter F. Bahnsen, the state veterinarian, has just received copies of these new laws and regulations from the printer and they are now available for distribution and may be had by applying to his office in the state capital.

All Stock Shipped Into State Must Be Certified Free of Disease.

In line with the vigorous effort being made by the state bureau of animal industry to suppress hog cholera and, complete the eradication of the cattle tick, new and drastic regulations will be put into effect on December 1.

Dr. Peter F. Bahnsen, the state veterinarian, has just received copies of these new laws and regulations from the printer and they are now available for distribution and may be had by applying to his office in the state capital.

The rules contain some important changes looking to the suppression and eradication of infectious diseases among live stock.

Carcasses of swine that have died of cholera must be destroyed, as must the carcasses of all animals that die of any contagious or infectious disease.

All bulls, cows, heifers or calves shipped from other states into Georgia must be free of tuberculosis. A tuberculin test card, issued by a qualified graduate veterinarian who must be endorsed by the authorities in charge of the live stock sanitary control in the state where the shipment originates, must accompany the way bill of cattle in the interstate transit destined to points within the state of Georgia.

Manufacturers and distributors of veterinary biological products will be required to secure the endorsement of the federal bureau of animal industry for their products before such articles can be sold in the state of Georgia and all such sales must be reported to the state veterinarian at Atlanta.

PEACE KEYNOTE OF MRS. LAMAR'S TALK

Firm in Faith of Past, Says It Is Now Time for National Peace.

Athens, Ga., October 31.—(Special.)—Mrs. E. Dolly Blount Lamar, of Macon, Ga., made a notable address before the Georgia division of the Daughters of the Confederacy tonight, in which she urged the members of that patriotic society, while holding fast to the memories and heroic traditions of the past, yet to keep step with the modern spirit of fraternity and unity between the sections. It was a broad national address. Her topic was "The Daughter of the Confederacy as a Citizen of the Republic."

While praising the work of the society, which she said was the only strictly southern organization of women, she also emphasized their duties as citizens of the nation. She urged the daughters to cultivate the virtues ennobled on the great seal of the state—"Wisdom, Justice and Moderation."

In the course of her address, showing that the time for bitter feeling between the different sections of the country has long since passed, she said: "Men of the southern and northern armies hold no personal enmity. Bravery on the one side is the pride of each, and glory of battlefields in the war between the states is not unto the north—not unto the south—but to a common American valor. This fairness is worthy the emulation of their descendants and must become part of the reason for the faith that is in us."

"Glow With National Pride."

"Daughters of the Confederacy, as citizens of the republic, do not your hearts glow with national pride that but one lonely man has of late years disgraced the United States congress by lack of patriotism and loyalty to the south? Do you not rejoice that the splendid estimate of foreign nations of the United States government is fast gaining popularity at the north? Bear all this in mind, daughters of the United States government. We go to the general convention in November. Bear in mind that we go there to lay the cornerstone of a monument to the soldiers of the confederacy who sleep in the shadow of the home of General Lee, now the property of the United States government. The spoils of war cannot be gained, therefore, in sharing with our dead the national cemetery at Arlington, the government has shown again the hand of generosity."

"Our president general, Mrs. Alexander B. White, spent a large part of last winter and spring in North Adams, Mass., on account of the illness of her husband. While there Mrs. White received as guest of honor the beautiful message: 'To the president general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Massachusetts chapter of the Daughters of American Revolution sends greetings. 'Love and tears for the Blue, tears and love for the Gray.'"

"Mrs. White was given the honor of a gathering of the local Women's Relief corps and was asked to speak on the work of the U. D. C. She was greatly feted by members of the G. A. R., their Sons and Daughters, and by those who heard her speech and purpose of the U. D. C. was roundly applauded and was made very happy by the sense of appreciation manifested by those who heard her speech and talked with her later."

Southern Defenders of Constitution.

"Understand the reasons for the policy of the south in the sixties and you will understand why southern statesmen have ever been defenders of the constitution, watchdogs of the treasury, bulwarks of political integrity of the United States."

"We must as citizens of the republic recognize that the United States government has of late years cared for many graves of confederate soldiers, has marked with the simple eloquence of facts and figures the battlefields of Chickamauga, Shiloh and Gettysburg that speak with unvarnished truth of the marvelous feat performed by southern soldiers as well as northern in those great conflicts."

"Behold the Temple Beautiful of Peace! A woman's hand hath builded it."

Session to Conclude.

The business sessions yesterday continued to hear rood reports from various officers and committees, most satisfactory in nearly every instance. The chapter reports showed gain and increasing interest over the year. Several new chapters organized during the year. The division has made more substantial advance in Georgia than in any other year of its organization of the division. The report of the state historian, Miss Mildred Lewis Ritterberg, who is also historian general of the south, was especially interesting, and indicates what the Daughters are doing in the preservation of the true history of the country.

The convention was entertained at 1:30 o'clock today at luncheon by the Athens Woman's club. Hostess and attended a reception given by the Daughters of the American Revolution at the elegant Mitchell avenue home of Mrs. Frances Long Taylor.

H. C. WHITNEY IS MANAGER

Automobile Man, Well Known in South, Takes Charge of Locomobile Agency.

H. C. Whitney, who was recently appointed manager of the Atlanta branch of Locomobile company of America, has taken charge of the Atlanta office, which includes not only supervision of the territory in the southern states, formerly controlled from the Atlanta office, but also Texas and Oklahoma, which have been added to Mr. Whitney's field.

Mr. Whitney is a live-wire and has the technical knowledge and experience with which to back up his energy. He was formerly connected with the American Locomobile company, with which he had general supervision of the sale of the Alco cars throughout the south. Mr. Whitney has been in the automobile business for the last decade, during which time he has gained a very intimate knowledge of both the manufacture and salesmanship of cars.

Mr. Whitney is every inch an optimist and highly pleased with the brilliant outlook of the southern automobile field. After a careful investigation of conditions he renders his verdict for a great future, not for his company alone, but for the automobile business in general in the southern states during the next few years.

"In coming to Atlanta to locate, Mr. Whitney is just beginning to get thoroughly acquainted with the city. 'I had been to Atlanta a number of years, but never except for a few days at the time,' says Mr. Whitney, 'so that I was acquainted with the business district of the city only and that in but a slight degree. However, I like the city since I am beginning to know it, and am glad I came.'"

And His Stomach Is All Right

Thousands With Poor Teeth Have Good Digestion by Using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets After Meals.

Whether or not we eat too much, is a matter for individual judgment. Benjamin Franklin tried the experiment of living on a handful of raisins. But he discovered that the quantity wasn't what he ate nor the quantity thereof, but one of digestion and assimilation. The normal person eats heartily, and with keen enjoyment. That is because his mind doesn't anticipate stomach trouble. And if he does have an attack of sour stomach or indigestion he knows that the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give quick relief.

A Gentleman of the "Old School" Who Keeps Up With the Times.

Many people have poor teeth, weak gums, sore teeth and other bothersome troubles that prevent a vigorous mastication of food. And instead of eating soft, mushy food that palls on the appetite they go in for those savory dishes, the very sort of which starts the saliva and makes the stomach fairly revel with anticipation.

This is but a natural condition. It may be regarded as a defect that it should not be a question of diet or kind of food, or teeth or even any of the reflexes which are supposed to have their influence in deranging the stomach. It is simply a matter of supplying the stomach and digestive organs with those known assistants such as pepsin, and hydrochloric acid, both of which have a direct and powerful action upon the contents of the stomach.

One grain of a single ingredient in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of food. This saves your stomach and gives it the rest it needs. All muscles require occasional rest if they are ever overtaxed. The stomach is no exception to this rule.

Try a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you will wonder how you ever got along without them. They are sold at 50 cents by all druggists everywhere. (advertisement.)

COTTOLINE Means Cleanliness & Economy!

You can cut your butter bills in two if you will confine the use of butter to your table, and use Cottolene—which is just as good as butter for shortening, and better for frying—in cooking.

Cottolene costs no more than lard. It will go one-third farther than butter or lard, because it is richer.

Cottolene contains no hog fat, but is a pure, vegetable product—made from choicest cotton oil. It is pure and clean, in source and making, is sold only in air-tight tin pails, which protect it from dirt, dust and store odors.

Cottolene is healthful; Cottolene will produce the best results in cooking; Cottolene is more economical than butter or lard.

Why not give Cottolene a trial, and serve your own best interests?

Try this Recipe:

CREAM MUFFINS
1 pint sifted flour 2 eggs
1/2 cup Cottolene 1/2 cup milk
2 tablespoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
Mix the baking powder and salt with the flour. Beat the yolks of the eggs lightly, add milk and stir quickly into the flour, then stir in the softened Cottolene and lastly the egg whites well beaten. Fill a greased muffin pan two-thirds full and bake 15 minutes in a very hot oven.

Funeral of Vice President at Utica
Saturday Afternoon--Senate
Will Be in Charge.

Utica, N. Y., October 31.—Arrangements for the funeral of Vice President James S. Sherman were completed today. The services will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church, and will be attended by President Taft and members of his cabinet, senators and representatives, foreign diplomats and governors.

It was at first announced that the obsequies would be held in Christ church, of which Mr. Sherman was a member, but as this edifice seats only 700 persons, and it was realized it would be too small to hold the throng that would desire to pay a final tribute of respect to the dead, the plans were changed when the Rev. Ralph W. Brokaw offered the use of the Presbyterian church, which has a seating capacity of more than 3,000.

Private Services for Family.
The Rev. Louis H. Holden, Mr. Sherman's pastor, will conduct the funeral service, assisted by the Rev. M. W. Stryker, president of Hamilton college, and the Rev. Dr. Brokaw, pastor of the Presbyterian church. An hour before the church services there will be a private service for members of the family at the Sherman residence. The body of the vice president will lie in state from 3 p. m. to 4 p. m. at the rotunda of the county building, to permit the citizens of Utica to take a last look at their distinguished fellow townsman.

The county building has been draped in emblems of mourning and flags, as have many of the business houses of the city. Business practically will be suspended during the funeral services Saturday.

At the close of the services the body will be taken to Forest Hill cemetery, where it will be placed in the beautiful Babcock mausoleum, which was completed but recently, and where Mrs. Sherman's mother rests.

Few Traces of Illness.
Mr. Sherman's body is said to show but few traces of the long illness through which the vice president passed. Flowers in profusion are in the room where the body lies.

Mrs. Sherman is bearing her loss with fortitude. She was kneeling at the bedside of her husband when the final summons came, and remained in the room the greater part of last night.

Before he died Mr. Sherman had entrusted his wife a list of those he wished to act as honorary pallbearers at his funeral. Who they are has not yet been announced.

Political activity here ceased with the death of the vice president. Meetings which had been scheduled have been abandoned by all parties.

Among the telegrams of condolence received by Mrs. Sherman were many from senators and members of the house. Senators Gallinger, of New Hampshire, and Bacon, of Georgia, who have acted alternately as president pro tempore of the senate in Mr. Sherman's absence, were among the first to send messages.

Senator Bacon said: "I beg to express my profound sympathy in this hour of your unspeakable affliction in the death of your universally beloved husband. By all the people of the United States his passing away will be deplored as a great national loss and by each senator he will be mourned as a personal friend."

He Was a Baseball Fan.
Now that Mr. Sherman is gone, the fact is recalled that he was almost as much concerned in the promotion of the sport as he was in the development of business interests. He was especially noted as a baseball fan, and he would suspend business almost any time to see a good game. As he was at the time the recent world's series was played, he displayed great interest in that event. He had telephoned him indicating the progress of each game. Loyal to the New York, the vice president expressed deep regret when the Giants fell.

PRESIDENT TAFT LEAVES TODAY.
TO ATTEND SHERMAN'S FUNERAL.
Washington, October 31.—President Taft arranged tonight to leave tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock for Utica to attend the funeral of Vice President Sherman Saturday. He will be accompanied by his military aide, Major Rhodes, and the Secretary of War, Stimson, or Secretary of Interior, Fisher, the only two cabinet officers now in Washington, will attend the funeral. He had not been determined if the secretaries go they will go with the president in his private car.

According to the present plans the president will not return to Washington again until after the election. He expects to go from Utica to New York, and after spending Sunday there leave for Cincinnati in time to vote Tuesday morning.

A special train was provided for today by Sergeant-at-Arms Randall, of the senate, to carry senators, members of the house and justices of the supreme court to the United States to Utica Saturday to pay a last tribute of official Washington to Vice President Sherman.

The train will be made up in New York, and will leave there at 8:30 a. m. Saturday for the journey to Utica. The return will be made immediately after the funeral.

The supreme court was officially invited to attend the funeral upon direction of Senator Bacon, president pro tempore of the senate, after the court adjourned Monday, out of respect for the memory of Mr. Sherman. At a conference of the justices tomorrow morning will be taken on the invitation. Flags upon the white house, the dome of the capitol and government buildings were at half-mast today. The state department prepared a proclamation which the president approved, prescribing thirty days' mourning for the death of Vice President Sherman and United States abroad, for closing of government offices on the day of the funeral and for the navy and upon military posts.

Wilson Wires Sympathy.
Princeton, N. J., October 31.—Governor Wilson sent the following telegram to Mrs. Sherman: "In common with the whole country, Mrs. Wilson and I have been deeply shocked by the death of Vice President Sherman and we wish to extend to you our heartfelt sympathy."

CHIEF ORDERS MEN TO HELP FIND JACK

Pet Fox Terrier Gone and Little Mistress Refuses to Be Comforted.

Little Miss Annie Bates, the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth W. Bates, of 501 West Peachtree street, refuses to be comforted until she finds "Jack," her pet fox terrier, that in some remarkable way escaped a few days ago.

Advertisement was promptly inserted in The Constitution and the columns of all the Atlanta newspapers were used to trace "Jack"—but without success, so far.

The neighborhood in which the little girl is exceedingly popular, is keenly interested itself in the search and Chief of Police Beavers has given instructions to the mighty men of his force to keep on the lookout for the lost pet, which has a half black face and a black spot around the eye on the white side of his face.

It has been the constant companion of his little mistress for many months and the two were inseparable. She cannot believe that "Jack" went astray voluntarily, but is of the opinion that somebody stole him.

When last seen he wore a collar marked "E. W. Bates." Any information about him will be received with pleasure by the owner at the above address, or by telephoning Ivy 2078, and a reward will be paid for his return.

A photograph of the pet whose absence has caused all this trouble is presented herewith.

GREEK COLONY LEARNS OF TURKISH ATROCITIES

News of Turkish atrocities against helpless women and children came direct to the Greek colony in Atlanta yesterday in a telegram from D. Valjeda, their consul at Wilmington, N. C. The telegram tells of the burning of twenty Christian villages in the Jannina district and of the slaughter of women and children and the panic-stricken flight of Christians from that section. It was received in Atlanta by Peter Poolos. According to Mr. Poolos the Janina district is in Epirus, situated on the western frontier of Turkey.

The message is as follows: "Give Atlanta newspapers following official telegram: Turkish army and bacbozouks burned twenty Christian villages in Jannina district; massacred women and children. Terrible atrocities committed and Christians fly panic."

The following telegram was received:

ACTOR AND WIFE ARE IN THE TOILS

Conways Held in Connection
With Miss Singer's Murder.

Couple Arrested at Lima, Ohio—Conway Says He Knows Nothing of the Tragedy.

Lima, Ohio, October 31.—Neither Charles N. Conway nor his wife knew of the murder of Miss Sophia G. Singer in Chicago Monday night until they read the papers at Rochester, Ind., the next day, according to a statement of Mrs. Conway here tonight. The Conways are under arrest and will be taken to Chicago in connection with the case. Mrs. Conway's statement, which the police say differs from that made by Conway, from whom she was separated on their arrest, is as follows:

"About four weeks ago Sophia Singer wrote me from Baltimore that she was going to Chicago with Worthen, to whom she said she was engaged," said Mrs. Conway. "She asked Charlie and me to join them there, and said she would pay all our expenses. I went on before Charlie and joined Sophia and Worthen, and we rented the suite of rooms on Indiana avenue. Worthen dabbled in wheat and corn at bucket shops. At times he seemed almost insane, while Sophia seemed in love with him, but at times much afraid of him.

She Says Queer Things Happened.
"Queer things happened Monday evening. We all had eaten supper, and then we went out, saying he was going to a poolroom. Sophia was seized with a strange idea. Grasping an object which she made by unscrewing a door knob and tying a handkerchief around it, which we called a sling, she shot, she wanted Charlie to go out with her to get a fellow, who, she said, had lots of money. She proposed that we entrap the fellow and that my husband knock him on the head. We would not listen to the proposition. Then we quarreled."

Sophia sprang from the table and said she would write a letter. A few moments later she returned. In one of her hands was a card. "It bore the name, if I remember rightly, of 'Claude Stillman,' the Congress hotel. 'I'm going to ditch card and suit,' I'm going to ditch Worthen and take Stillman. He has lots of money and Worthen is no good of late."

"That night we left, intending to go south, and first learned of the murder at Rochester, Ind. We did not want to return to Chicago because we knew we would be held as witnesses, but as Sophia was well and in good health when we left, we never thought they would accuse us."

Waiting for Stillman.
Mrs. Conway, the police woman, told them that when they left their rooming house Monday night, Miss Singer was putting on her shoes preparatory to meeting Claude Stillman, whom she had met that afternoon.

"I admit that I'm the man the police are looking for," Conway said, "but I deny that I have any knowledge of the crime in connection with which they want me."

Conway and the woman were taken to jail to await the coming of officers from Chicago.

"I did not know that such a crime as the Singer murder had been committed until I read about it in the papers," the police report Conway said to them. They say Conway declared the body of Miss Singer must have been put in his room at the Indiana avenue apartment in Chicago after he and his wife left the city Monday night.

Mrs. Joseph Cramer, whom the police believe to be Conway's mother, lives here.

Conway and his wife told the police that the person they saw as they left their boarding house in Chicago was Miss Singer, who gave Mrs. Conway health when we left, we never thought they would accuse us."

Worthen Is Glad.
Chicago, October 31.—William R. Worthen, the murdered girl's fiancé, who is being held by the police, was told of the arrest.

"Oh, I'm so glad," he said.

"Now if they will confess that will clear the whole matter up."

Worthen was told he probably could return to Baltimore today if he desired, but he declined, saying he preferred to remain in Chicago and aid in prosecuting the Conways.

Worthen, confronted with the story told by the Conway woman in Lima, said:

"I know of no name of Claude Stillman. I do not know of any man who might have had an engagement with Miss Singer."

Claude L. Stillman was questioned today by detectives in connection with the Singer murder, a result of Mrs. Conway's statement at Lima, Ohio. Stillman, who is a traveling salesman, and married, voluntarily conferred with police, and admitted that he had known the murdered woman under another name than Singer. He insisted, however, that he had never visited the house where she was killed, and that he could account for his whereabouts on Monday night.

His Probable Fate.
(From Judge.)
"Mrs. Pifflegilder has just married again, but her new husband has such a peculiar name that to save my life I cannot remember what it is."

"No matter! Very likely we shall never hear of him again until she decides to get a divorce from him."

Eminent Jurist Laid to Rest in Oakland Cemetery With Impressive Ceremonies.

The last rites of honor to Judge John L. Hopkins, who died in Atlanta Wednesday morning, were paid that distinguished jurist and public-spirited citizen of Georgia. Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the funeral services were held from the late residence, 28 Spruce str., in Man Park, Rev. C. B. Wilmer, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, officiated. SOUTH GEORGIA 10,000 CORN BOYS ON EXHIBITION WORK FOR PRIZES

Great Land and Agricultural Show Opens at Tifton.

Thirty-five Counties Represented in Exposition, Surpassing Anything
Held in That Section Before.

By J. Walter LeCraw, Special Staff
Correspondent.

Tifton, Ga., October 31.—(Special.)—The South Georgia Land and Agricultural exposition opened its gates this morning to hundreds of people. The exposition grounds, half a mile from the heart of Tifton, presented the appearance of one of the busiest places in Georgia as the last falls were driven in the booths, the exhibits set in place and the people admitted to view the products of south Georgia soil.

Farmers gathered from hundreds of miles to see the exhibits from their own and neighboring counties. Scores of other visitors are here and many more will arrive by Saturday, which is corn club and education day. The agricultural building, the stock exhibit, the poultry show, the woman's building, the machinery exhibit and the flaring midway all combine to make the finest and most complete exposition ever shown in the southern half of Georgia.

Thirty-five counties are represented in the exhibits, either officially or by individuals. Cotton is displayed in all its glory, in spite of the fact that this section is suffering from a shortage this year. Sugar cane is shown, fat and juicy, the stalks being eleven and twelve feet long.

Boys' Corn Club Exhibit.

More interesting of all is the boys' corn club exhibit. Practically every county south of the line between Savannah and Columbus is represented. Under the direction of G. V. Cunningham, district agent for the boys' corn club, 750 exhibits of ears each have been arranged on exhibition. These 750 prize ears were chosen by competition in the various counties. They make a display almost as large as the corn show in Atlanta last fall and they will be taken in body to the Atlanta show, opening December 3. Cash prizes and premiums offered by the directors of the exhibition and by the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad will be awarded on next Saturday and Monday following.

Hundreds gathered this afternoon in anticipation of the aeroplane flight by Harold Kanter. Hardly any of the natives of south Georgia had ever seen a flying machine. Owing to the wind and drizzling rain that marred the afternoon, the aviator did not fly, but the sun set clear and expectations are raised for a big day tomorrow.

Appeal for Settlers.

One thing marks this exposition as the most unique ever held in Georgia and probably in the south. It is the appeal being made for settlers for the rolling hills and fertile lands of the wiregrass section of Georgia. The land of the long leaf yellow pine is famous for its game, its cotton and its grain.

H. B. Layton, secretary of the chamber of commerce, and Captain H. H. Tift, the oldest settler in this section, are co-operating with the exposition directors in systematizing the work of interesting people from outside Georgia in the wiregrass section. This work is being done on much larger scale than last year, when the first exposition ever south Georgia had was held here.

The success of this year marks the establishing of the exposition as an annual event.

The Net

By Rex Beach

BIG, buoyant, bracing, this new story surges along through stormy seas of excitement to its final anchorage in the placid depths of love. Yes, love is here—the strong, passionate love of a man for his heart's desire. Revenge is here—the hot, reckless revenge of the Sicilian Mafia. Corruption is here—political corruption which leads to riot. And through all these scenes of violence and bloodshed there flows a steady stream of the genuine Rex Beach humor—the humor of brilliant phrase and ludicrous situation.

Like his other books of the lawless North, this new novel will quicken every heart that pumps red blood, and while in real life one does not care for over-much slaughter, yet in fiction the guns boom softly, and we remember only the tenderness of the meetings of lovers as we close the book.

VIVIAN TAKES FRENCH LEAVE

Men and Religion Find Young
Actress a Home—But She Escapes in Night.

A half-dozen sleuths are engaged in the difficult task of keeping on the trail of elusive Vivian Faulkenbury, the 18-year-old actress sent to the Florence Crittenton home under the auspices of the Men and Religion Forward Movement, who escaped early Thursday morning from that institution.

Vivian was arrested Sunday night on charges of disorderly conduct, growing out of an alleged attempt to abduct her 9-year-old sister, Gracie. Her mother appeared in police court as the prosecutor and prevailed upon Judge Broyles to impose a sentence of thirty days upon the young actress.

Vivian accepted the sentence with a show of contempt and walked haughtily back to her cell in the matron's ward. Later she accepted a home which the Men and Religion offered and she became established in the Florence Crittenton home.

At midnight Thursday the night watchman at the Crittenton home discovered Vivian's room to be empty. His gave an immediate alarm, which resulted in the instant notification of police headquarters. At 2:30 o'clock Friday morning, after hours of search, detectives reported by telephone to headquarters that they still were on her trail, but had not caught up with her yet!

"CHATHAM BOOZE WOULD MAKE MAN KILL MOTHER"

Savannah, Ga., October 31.—(Special.)—"The whisky sold in Chatham county is enough to make a man kill his mother," said Judge Walter G. Charlton in the superior court today, while passing sentence on Erwin M. Hawthorne, who, indicted for assault with intent to murder, pleaded guilty to stabbing.

Hawthorne used a pocket knife on his wife and, as it is a weapon which many jurors do not consider likely to produce death, Solicitor General Hartbridge accepted the plea of guilty to the charge of stabbing. Judge Charlton, in passing sentence, asked Hawthorne why he had stabbed his wife and he gave liquor as the excuse.

Hawthorne was sentenced to serve twelve months.

Witnesses testified that the robber was only 13 years old, although 5 feet 6 inches tall and well built. Judge

How Do You Like To Do Business?

We know, but we would like to hear you say it. Do you like to do business at the buyer's risk? To feel when you purchase your Piano that you're taking some chances of not getting good value?

Possibly purchasing some dealer's pet piano—his big profit-maker—to wonder if you might have done better somewhere else, or with some different house. To wonder whether somebody else could buy the same thing for a little less than you paid? Some shrewder buyer.

You don't like it. We don't like to do business that way, either. As manufacturers or sellers of the world renowned Kimball instruments—

We're just as much opposed to that kind of practice as you are as a buyer.

We have no discounts, no deviations, no two or three prices. We have made the celebrated Kimball instruments for over fifty years. Every part of them in our own factories. We put on them the lowest prices possible to insure a fair profit, and that insures to you the highest value for your money possible.

When you come here you may leave at the door all doubt about quality and value, all doubt about getting the lowest price, all doubt about getting continued satisfaction.

We guarantee both price and the quality—for a year, for five years, or as much longer as you think there's any doubt about it. That the "Kimball guarantee is as good as a government bond" is almost a household word of the nation. Better get one with your Piano.

WITCHERIES OF HALLOWE'EN HOLD SWAY AT CLUB DANCE

Witches and witchery held full sway at the Piedmont Driving club last night when all the fun and frolic and mystic charm of All Hallowe'en was expressed in the decorations and in the general features introduced at the ball after the dinner.

Dinner was served at 8 o'clock and there were 300 or 400 guests, including a large contingent of the married and unmarried elements making up the club membership.

There were several large parties besides the popular sized party of six and eight. The dinners were served in the ball room. Mr. and Mrs. Clark Howell entertained in compliment to General and Mrs. Evans. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Pappenhimer gave a large party for their debutante daughter, Miss Marie Pappenhimer, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Speer entertained in honor of Miss Elizabeth Rawson and Mr. Clarence Haverty.

The ballroom expressed all the quaint symbolism of the day. The walls were thickly hung with autumn leaves and Spanish moss in garlands were draped from the center of the ceiling to the sides of the wall. Between these garlands hung others of bamboo, from which swayed pumpkin lanterns and corn stalks showing the autumn grain. Above these, black bats and little witches seemed to be flitting about in mystic action.

Near the fireplace, upon which were pumpkin lamps showing through corn stalks and autumn shrubbery, were three witches riding the proverbial broomsticks and adding to the atmosphere of uncanniness which is a part of Hallowe'en.

At the end of the ballroom were two little black-covered booths on each side of the fireplace. On one, to which the ladies were invited to see the witches, was a mirror in which the witchery rather was seen, and in the other booth when the curtain was drawn there shone the picture of the prettiest of girls.

The dinner served was delicious and in the center of each table were yellow chrysanthemums and the rich-toned zinnias in the shades of purple and red.

Among those who entertained were Mr. and Mrs. James L. Dickey; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hockaday; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Nelson; Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Daniel; Mr. and Mrs. George C. Waters; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sisson; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Seiple; Mr. Hubbard Allen; Mr. E. S. Gay, Lieutenant Eurdette; Colonel and Mrs. William Lawson Peel; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hall; Mr. Jesse Draper; Mr. Hamilton Block; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ogilvie; Dr. and Mrs. Hinman; Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Davis; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Raine; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dargan; Mr. and Mrs. George Dexter; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Peters; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Meador; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wood; Mr. and Mrs.

Walter Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Little, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Calhoun, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Lowndes, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Collier, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Harman, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Innan, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Conklin, Dr. and Mrs. Blalock, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Coles, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Orme, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Congdon, Mr. M. S. Harper, Mr. Claude Doughtitt, Mr. T. C. Shaw, Mr. Rudolph Geisler, Mr. W. B. Harper, Mr. F. M. McGonigal, Mr. and Mrs. James Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Latimer, Mr. James L. Harris, Dr. Osborne, Mr. Charles Seiple, Dr. and Mrs. Willis Westmoreland, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nunnally, Mr. and Mrs. Ulric Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Kiser, Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Nittinger, Mr. J. B. Webster, Mr. Hugh Scott.

Debutante Dinner.

An initial event among the debutante functions was the dinner last night given by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Pappenhimer at the dinner dance at the Driving club. This was the first of a series of entertainments to introduce their lovely debutante daughter, Miss Marie Pappenhimer, but it was a graceful compliment to all the debutantes that they were included to share the honors of the occasion.

The table occupied the center of the dining room and its decoration in red and white was a glowing incident of color in the midst of a brilliant picture of Hallowe'en gaiety. In the center was a large silver loving cup of white chrysanthemums, and at each end were other loving cups of red roses. The shades on the silver candleholders were red, and the table was garlanded with smilax. Novel favors at each place were stuffed birds of gay plumage, their pedestals full of bonbons.

Miss Pappenhimer is a brunette of distinctive charm, her piquant beauty lighted by the prettiest brown eyes and the charm of a happy nature which seems to overflow with gay sweetness, and has heightened her popularity in her schoolgirl days. She will make her bright figure in the social life. She has only recently returned from abroad, and she wore last night a dainty Parisian gown of brocade crepe trimmed with ermine and crystals. Her corsage bouquet was of Parma violets.

In the party were Misses Marie Pappenhimer, Helen Hobbs, Harriet Cole, Helen Dargan, Janie Cooper, Hildreth Smith, Miss Cramer of Charlotte, Misses Margaret Hawkins, Mary Hines, Mildred Harman, Marion Goldsmith, Van Spalding, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Adair, Jr., Messrs. James Callaway,

Madison Bell, Edward Alfriend, J. S. Slicer, Eugene Kelly, Hal Hentz, Martin Colquitt, Graham Phelan, Arthur Clark, Joseph Colquitt, Ed Peeples, Lauren Foreman.

To Miss Rawson and Mr. Haverty

The dinner at which Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Speer entertained at the Piedmont Driving club last night in honor of Miss Rawson and Mr. Haverty was one of the most beautiful in the many given. The long table had superb decoration in yellow chrysanthemums. In the center was an oblong plateau of the flowers, from the center of which arose a floral fountain of the same flowers. At each end of the table were round plateaux of the same flowers, while between were garlands of smilax, under which were concealed tiny electric lights under gold-lighted shades.

Gold butterflies were souvenirs for the ladies, and gold rings from which hung hearts for the girls.

The menu cards were ornate with gold butterflies, and every detail reflected the scheme of white and gold. In Mrs. Speer wore an elegant tulle in white satin, brocaded in bowknots in a pale orchid shade. A drapery was introduced to add grace to the skirt. The corsage and sleeves were softened by a veiling of soft lace. Miss Rawson wore white lace over white satin, with garniture of pink roses.

The guests were Misses Sarah Rawson, Leona Leeson, Arlene McKim, Estelle Smith, May Atkinson, Margaret Haverty, Harriet Calhoun, Helen Payne, Messrs. Lawyers' Day.

After careful deliberation the ladies in charge of the D. A. R. restaurant decided that it would be a lovely compliment to their friends of the bench and bar to choose All Saints' day as a day which should be dedicated to the lawyers on account of their high character and saintly demeanor. The ladies confidently expect every lawyer in the city to show his appreciation of the compliment by appearing at the old club between the hours of 12 and 3 o'clock and enjoying some of the nice home cooking prepared.

ODD LOVE SONG

What appears to be a very quaint song for women is a ballad now ringing through the south called "That's How I Need You." It is also one of the most effective crazes New York has known since "Silver Threads Among the Gold." The music is rather catchy, while the words are considerably better than the cheap class of modern songs. Here is a part of the chorus, clipped from a sheet of the music just received:

That's How I Need You
CHORUS. By PIANTADOSI
Like a broken heart needs gladness... Like the flow-er need the dew... Like a ba-by needs its moth-er, That's how I need you.
By permission, Joe. Perry Copyright

A few copies of the song, reached Atlanta yesterday and were eagerly seized by the fair sex. Several very capable singers are demonstrating the song about town and it looks as if this new musical fad has come to stay with a vengeance. The song certainly has some charm, so far as melody and sentiment is concerned.

SEVEN YEARS CONFINEMENT

In Advices From Foster, Mrs. Ellis Makes Public Some Startling Statements.

Foster, Ark.—"I was sick for seven years," writes Mrs. Fannie Ellis, of this place, "and half the time could not stand on my feet. I was very near death. I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and in two months I was cured and am now stout and healthy."

"I was sick so long that I won the sympathy of my friends, and they all asked what cured me, for my looks are a testimonial to Cardui."

After I was cured, I didn't know but what Cardui was like so many other medicines, that is, pretend to cure for a while, but it has been two years since I have taken a dose, and I feel as well as ever.

"I can walk a mile, work all day, and walk back home at night and not be much tired. Before taking Cardui I could not walk across the floor."

"I cannot recommend Cardui too highly. It is a God-send to suffering women."

Thousands of women who now suffer from womanly trouble, could be relieved and benefited, by following Mrs. Ellis' example.

Are you of this number? If so, try Cardui today. It cannot harm you, and is almost sure to do you good.

The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

WHEN young Miss Housewife first aspired, to build the home her mate desired, she dreamed of castles in the air, with never toil nor woe nor care. She half imagined, in a way, that keeping house was only "play."

The Art of Dirt Chasing

Too soon the sordid side of life—the dust and grime and soot and strife—each one, in turn, reminded her, that little problems must occur. A part of thrift is in the knack of fighting dirt around you, back of keeping constantly at work where dust and germs of illness lurk.

This housewife had her little cry, gave up—and scarcely knowing why. Then, from the sombre clouds of doubt, two rays of golden hope crept out. The Gold Dust Twins threw wide the door and entered, eager for a chore. They polished all the silverware, they scrubbed the bathroom and the stair. Each mirror soon was shining bright, the kettles shone with gleaming light, and all around, from pit to dome, they garnished up that little home.

Ah! Ye who feel that, once begun, a housewife's work is NEVER done, have cheer! The Gold Dust Twins make play of any task that comes their way. A mop—a cloth—a busy brush, and honestly it makes us blush, to think we ever played the drone by working in the house alone.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Orr's Beautiful Luncheon.

The luncheon at which Mrs. J. K. Orr complimented fifty guests yesterday in honor of Miss Otley and Miss Marjorie Brown was one of the handsomest of entertainments, combined with warm hospitality, elegance and uniqueness.

The decorative scheme combined the ideas of the "Harvest Home" and "All Hallowe'en," and in every detail both ideas were completely carried out.

At the door the guests were met by a ghostly figure in all black, who pointed with long, gaunt arm to the stairway beyond, and as the guests passed on they beheld witches' heads here and there, the only light showing through the eyes of black pumpkin heads and the eyes of black cats.

At the base of the stairway another ghost showed the way on, and at the first landing a forest of young pine trees against the wall had in them black bats and owls, their little beady eyes showing yellow lights.

Lights in the dining room showed Jack of Lanterns, large and small, beaming from everywhere, and the platters from which the delicious viands were served were ornate in the same colors.

The Hallowe'en idea was never lost, and when the ice cream came it was chocolate, the color of good clay, mounted by a little flower pot. The red-rose cake had balanced on the top of it a miniature black cat.

Mrs. Orr wore an elegant toilet in taupe-colored brocade, the skirt gracefully draped, and the corsage finished with fur and a touch of cerise. Miss Orr wore a charming toilet in dark green cloth, the corsage combining a lighter green chiffon and a rich embroidery in its make-up.

Miss Otley's Frenchy toilet combined taupe charmeuse satin and cloth; the skirt was draped, and the slightly bloused corsage had a ceinture of satin combining the shades of blue and orange and flame color. Her hat of taupe plush was trimmed in ostrich the same color, a blue velvet bow giving finish.

Miss Brown's most becoming costume was of white charmeuse combined effectively with black, and her black hat was trimmed in white plumes.

Mrs. Lee Jordan, who assisted in the entertainment of the guests, was handsomely gowned in dark blue.

LOUIS MANN SCORES HIT IN "ELEVATING A HUSBAND"

Louis Mann and his splendid company, presenting "Elevating a Husband," were given an enthusiastic reception at the Atlanta theater last night. For two acts the warmth of the reception has not been equaled in Atlanta since the beginning of the present season.

And deserved so. The first and second acts of "Elevating a Husband" are as delightfully humorous as one could imagine. The lines sparkle with bright dialogue and ludicrous situations are abundant. At the conclusion of the second act Mr. Mann and his company were repeatedly called before the curtain, and a majority of those in the audience were ready to stamp the play with the seal of unqualified approval. But—(what a misfortune that one should ever be called upon to use that qualifying word)—the fourth act does not measure up to expectations. The unfolding of the central characters is by no means so convincing, and the certain fall on what comes perilous near to being an anti-climax, and dwindles off into nothingness.

However, there is enough of solid enjoyment in the first and second acts to compensate, in a large measure, for the deficiencies that follow. If the play were compressed into three acts it would prove vastly more pleasing. There is a good deal of lost motion in the fourth act.

In "Elevating a Husband" Mr. Mann essayed a role wholly dissimilar to the character parts for which he is best known. In the active, uncouth, self-made young business man, with his chain of "nickel stores," who reads nothing but the sporting pages, there is nothing of the dialect comedian of other days. Charley Sample is a very real person. He is true to type and easily recognizable. His honesty, his loyalty to his friends, his love for his mother are admirably portrayed. In contrast to the mouthy collection of superficial creatures with their thin veneer of half-baked philosophy, who are cultivated by his wife, he stands out a real blood and bone man—his assays one hundred fine every inch of him.

The play in spots is a satire on many of the prevailing fads of so-called cultured women of the present day who are not capable of discerning the difference between the specious and the real, worth-while things of life. Charley Sample's young and socially ambitious wife tries to "elevate" him through contact with a mob of long-haired musicians and mealy-mouthed maudliners who hang on the fringes of society. She does not succeed. But she does succeed in discrediting that her husband, with all his crudities, is a far finer human being than her flattering friends.

Mr. Mann has an excellent company.

Emily Ann Wellman, who plays Letty, the high-strung, ambitious young wife, is a splendid actress. In the dramatic scenes she displays real art.

The play is well mounted and there is a gratifying fidelity to detail in the scenery. "Elevating a Husband" will be seen tonight, Saturday at matinee and Sunday night. SIDNEY ORMOND.

William Hodge.

(At the Atlanta.) This morning at 9 o'clock seats will be placed on sale for the engagement of William Hodge in "The Man From Home," which will be the offering at the Atlanta Tuesday and Wednesday night. Hodge is a star of the Broadway proclaimed by critics as the best production in Atlanta last year. The same cast as that seen then will appear next week beginning performances to the highest standards are assured. A matinee will be given Wednesday afternoon.

Keith Vaudeville.

(At the Grand.) There is something about the bill at the Grand this week that makes people rush for seats, and it's such a big theater that seats are going around pretty fair, but the way interest is shown will be a case of the "early bird," so far as choice seats go. Next week will introduce seven new acts, headed by Bert Leslie, the king of slang; Laura Guerin, the Broadway musical comedy star, and Bert Fitzgibbon and a pony ballet of a half dozen pretty girls.

"The Girl in the Taxi."

(At the Lyric.) "The Girl in the Taxi," which comes to the Lyric for an engagement of eight nights, Monday night, is remarkable for its numberless complications. Mix-up follows mix-up in such rapid-fire order that the audience finds it difficult to catch its breath between laughs. Election returns will be read from the stage Tuesday night.

"The Traveling Salesman."

(At the Lyric.) When "The Traveling Salesman" closes its engagement at the Lyric tomorrow night, the house will have recorded one of the most enjoyable weeks of the season. This brand of comedy will always be popular, for it tells an interesting story, and its humor is of the clean and wholesome sort. "The Traveling Salesman" will play the usual Saturday matinee and close the week with tomorrow night's performance.

"Texas."

(At the Forsyth.) "Texas," as played by the Emma Bunting company at the Forsyth has proven a most successful comedy. The four acts are all interesting because Miss Bunting has something special in each act. For next week the bill will be "Leah Kleschna," one of the greatest plays ever staged and one that is full of sobs and some laughter. It is the sort of play that suits Miss Bunting and will make the attendance a record-breaker.

CITY NEWS

Puckett's Death Causes Suit.—James Puckett and Elizabeth Hay, as administrators of the estate of the late William Puckett, have brought suit against the Southern railway company for $15,000 damages, alleging that William Puckett was killed August 30 in the Atlanta yards while crossing the tracks. Puckett was cleaning a caboose when an engine collided with the caboose and the real, worth-while things of life. The suit is being handled by C. G. Middlebrooks and Shepard Bryan.

Burkett Named Receiver.—Judge Newman yesterday named J. F. Burkett receiver for the Terminal Clothing company, located at 7 West Mitchell street, and which filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy Wednesday with Deputy Clerk Fred Beers, of the federal court. The receiver named was asked for a bond in the sum of $2,000.

Sues Fidelity Company.—Because the knee of a large negro workman was jammed unceremoniously into his stomach when a rope upon which they and a number of others were pulling as they were raising lumber at the courthouse, and because a few days later when he returned to work he fell over a pile of lumber, F. A. Trimbach has brought suit in the superior court against the Fidelity and Deposit company of Maryland for $3,000. The suit is brought against this company, the concern that took over Mose de Leon's contract after his disappearance.

Dr. Jarrell at First Methodist.—Rev. J. C. Jarrell, former pastor of Grace Methodist church, will preach next Sunday morning at the First Methodist church. Dr. Jarrell has just returned from a trip abroad having spent a year studying in universities at Berlin and Edinburgh on the religious life and church work of the English and German people.

Spectacular Ball at Fort.—A full-dress military ball will be held at Fort McPherson in the gymnasium tonight, and all members of the Regimental Social club, composed of the enlisted men, will be in full-dress uniforms. The ladies invited will appear in evening dress. The regimental colors will be placed in the center of the rectory, and with an escort. Another ball, planned by the chaplain of the regiment, will be a fancy dress affair for November 15. Prizes will be offered for the most unique dress among the visiting ladies.

CONFERENCE ON SMOKE WILL BE HELD TODAY

There will be a conference today between R. M. Harwell, president of the smoke board, and Inspector Paul McMichael, and, according to a statement made Thursday afternoon, cases may be made against 100 plant managers and superintendents for violating the smoke ordinance.

President Harwell says that although more than 100 plants were notified that the smoke ordinance was being violated, not one has done anything to abate the nuisance. Several have promised to do all in their power to work in harmony with the board. The railroads were given until October 15 to comply with the law, and although the Southern, he says, have made preparations, and it is understood that it is negotiating for a plan to alleviate the nuisance. Several manufacturers have equipped their boilers with smoke consuming devices.

OFFICIALS CONSIDER AUTO SHOW PLANS

Beautiful Event Will Attract Many Tourists to Atlanta—Decorations Almost Complete.

President George Hanson, of the Atlanta A. A. A., in charge of the automobile show which will be held at the Auditorium November 16 to 23, called the show committee to meet Thursday morning, and went over the plans of the big show that is keeping automobile men all over the country interested.

"We realize that there are thousands of people all over the south who want to come to Atlanta to see the show, but that they will be expecting to have some entertainment other than a showing of automobiles," said President Hanson. "We also realize this committee has a task in getting together the most refined entertainment possible."

"This show is going to be an annual affair, one that will attract the attention of winter tourists through the south, and for that reason money will not stand in the way of making it refined and artistic in every sense of the word. Atlanta has an opportunity with the show to start a tourist movement that will bring millions of dollars and this city every year, and all that is necessary is for the business men to get together and co-operate with us."

A Million-Dollar Show.

The Atlanta show is going to be a million-dollar show in every respect. There will be hundreds of cars on the floor of the Auditorium, representing hundreds of thousands of dollars. It will be the first showing of 1913 models in the United States, and will be the first opportunity given the south to see the latest automobile fire apparatus and equipment.

No one who has not seen the plans and sketches showing the color scheme and decorations can know the magnitude of the show. For more than a month a small army of artists have been in the building transforming it into a veritable fairyland. V. W. Sheppard, one of the most famous artists and decorators in the country, is in charge of the work. He reported to the committee Thursday that the work was nearly completed.

The committee has decided to give away handsome souvenir programs during show week to remind the visitors of the event.

SEWANEE TIGERS RULE FAVORITES

Locally, the Sewanee Tigers rule the Georgia intercollegiate football scene in their game at Athens tomorrow.

Many small bets have been made on the outcome, at the prevailing odds of 7 to 5, and in some instances at 10 to 7.

There were a few 75 to 50 bets registered on Thursday, and one at 150 to 100.

This turn of affairs has been taken here by reason of the announcement that the Sewanee team is eligible to play the Georgia team, from which it was eliminated in some rumors of impairment assumed names of Sewanee players, but it is nothing but talk as far as I can learn. Morris asked about Sheldon, Robbins and Moore, three of the finest fellows on the team, with excellent records in preparatory schools as students and most highly recommended to us by their school. No possible suspicion of irregularities attached to them. I have written Morris, giving him their entire history. Depend upon you to put this matter right in the newspapers immediately.

You may publish any part of the above as coming from me as dean of the college faculty and director of athletics. Appreciate your interest and grateful for you to put this matter right in the newspapers immediately.

DIXIE ATHLETIC CLUB

SUCCEEDS THE OLYMPIC

The Dixie Athletic club, with H. J. Norton as secretary and treasurer, W. L. Norton as manager, O. L. Blanton as matchmaker and C. W. Burke as referee, will succeed the Olympic Athletic club, operated by Harry Staten, whose retirement is announced elsewhere.

The new club has bought out Staten's lease on the Viaduct place, and will start work this morning on remodeling the hall to get it in fine shape for the opening mill on November 12. New chairs will be installed, and the entire interior will be gone over by decorators.

Carl Morris, the Sapulpa, Okla., fireman, has been secured for the opening card.

Just who will meet the big engineer is not known. The promoter is angling for several good heavies, among them Al Kubiak, Gunboat Smith and Jim Stewart.

CAROLINA WINS OVER CLEMSON

Columbia, S. C., October 31.—(Special.)—Showing an almost marvelous aptitude at straight football and putting up almost impenetrable defense, the University of South Carolina football team today defeated Clemson by the score of 22 to 7.

Carolina was strong in end runs and in backs, seldom trying the forward pass. Clemson, on the other hand, diagnosed the plays exactly and time after time intercepted the pass or so rushed the passers that the throw went wild. A crowd of about 3,500 saw the game.

Clemson scored first on a fake buck in the second quarter. Kangeter carried it across. The Game Cocks then continued to pile up points, making two more touchdowns and a goal from the field.

Harth, quarterback and Slight starred for the visitors. Coles did well for the Tigers and Legan made a remarkable run of 40 yards.

The line-up:

CAROLINA.	Positions.	CLEMSON.

Killing Was Accidental.—Brown Moore was arraigned in the recorder's court yesterday morning because of the death of a small negro child by an auto truck which he was driving on Ashby street last Tuesday.

The evidence showed that the accident was unavoidable and the case was dismissed.

AUBURN-TECH GAME SATURDAY

Tech's first big football game of the year is but one day off. Saturday afternoon, at Ponce de Leon park, they meet their old-time rivals—Auburn.

All Atlanta is looking forward to this game with much interest. Instead of a track meet for Auburn, as it was first looked, a close game is now anticipated. Auburn rules the favorite on the dope and in the betting, but it will be a fierce battle, nevertheless.

Auburn will weigh 15 pounds more to the man than the Jackets, will be taller and with more experience, but on comparative scores, the dope is about a standoff.

The weather will figure some in the result. If Saturday is such a day as Thursday was, clear and warm, with a dry field, the lighter Jackets may run the tongues out of their heavier opponents. A lighter team is always dangerous on a dry field.

Tech held her last scrimmage on Thursday afternoon. Today will be devoted to the study of the game. A monster mass meeting at the chapel is planned for Friday night. The faculty and student heads will address the students and attempt to work up splendid spirit.

The game will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock. The admission fee will be $1. reserved seats 25 cents extra. Autos can be parked on the north side lines for $1 additional. Seats can be purchased down town at Tumlin Brothers' stores.

George Butler, as referee; Innis Brown, as umpire, and Charles Jamison, as head linesman, will probably be the officials in charge of the game.

Examination for Engineer.—Secretary Jennings, of the civil service commission of Atlanta, will hold an examination in his rooms at the federal building November 25 for a in the bureau of mines, for service in western states as a salary ranging from $1,800 to $3,000 a year.

The Southern International Poultry association will hold its annual show December 10 to 21, 1912, in Armoury building, Atlanta, Ga. Write to Mr. T. M. Poole, secretary, P. O. Box 943, Atlanta, Ga., for premium list.

Poultry Industry Growing.

There have been more poultry shows held in Georgia this year, and in fact over the entire south, than were ever held before.

Poultry associations have been organized in almost every county in Georgia, and where there was not enough thoroughbred poultry to make a good exhibit, two and sometimes three counties combined, put their birds together and held a show that was far in advance of almost all of the shows that were held three or four years ago.

Everyone knows that there are eight or ten times as many thoroughbred chickens bred in the south today than there ever was in the history of this important industry. It has been said over and over again that the south is twenty years behind the north in poultry culture, and, until recently, Georgia was behind almost every state in the south.

There has recently been a wonderful change in regard to this behavior in Georgia, as a beginning, we have two colleges where poultry culture is taught, and a United States experiment station. The people are aroused. The farmers particularly are beginning to see the great importance of this great agricultural product. Those who read the reports that are issued at Washington opened their eyes when they read that the poultry industry was, by the last census, worth more than the cotton and corn crops combined.

Now, there is nothing that will give a better idea as to the interest that people are taking in this important industry as will a poultry show. A poultry show is the pulse of the industry. I get my mail, look over the letters, and sometimes find two or three from different places. "Please tell me how to organize a poultry association." "Several of us in this place want to hold a poultry show. Can you tell us how to organize it?" I have received more letters this year on this than I ever received before. It looks good to me now. Everybody goes to the poultry shows; some just to look at the beautiful birds, some to buy or sell fancy stock; others to purchase utility stock for the farm of the latter class.

All communications in reference to poultry advertisements should be addressed to the Advertising Department, and not to Uncle Dudley.

Farmers are more interested in well-bred chickens today than ever before in their lives. They are beginning to learn the value of a well-bred chicken. It took them many years to learn the difference between a Jersey cow and a scrub. They were not informed then as to the great superiority of the Jersey over the scrub. But they all know now—and they are rapidly learning the vast superiority of the thoroughbred over the old barnyard fowl.

Now, just here, let me say to those of you who contemplate getting purebred fowls for next year's use: Buy what you want now. The demand for fancy and utility fowls is greater now than it has ever been, and the supply is shorter than ever before. We have just passed through one of the worst seasons in the history of the industry. The price is steadily increasing. If you wait until spring you will pay twice as much for what you need. If you are able to purchase them at all. The bad weather all over the country has so shortened the poultry crop that from every quarter reports come that eggs will be higher in price than ever before. Better buy a good bunch of utility fowls now, so you can reap a good harvest of eggs next year.

THE GEORGIA POULTRY ASSOCIATION SHOW.

I visited the Georgia poultry show Thursday for the first time. The first poultry show that I have attended this season. I have only time to say a few words about this show now; will have something more to say later on.

The birds on exhibition are as high in class as one could wish to see at a poultry show. Some of these birds are exceptionally good. Everybody who is in the least interested in poultry should visit this show. There are only two days more before the close. It will take only 10 cents to see it. You can go and take all the children with you.

Name the Winner NOMINATION BLANK

Date....., 1912
We nominate the following as our favorites in Atlanta Constitution's Grand Prize Contest:
Address.....
Baseball Club.....
Address and Name of Captain.....
Individual Candidate.....
Address.....
Boy or Girl Candidate.....
Address.....
The above are nominated by Name:..... Address:.....

Each signature to a nomination blank counts 1,000 votes for each organization or candidate for the four different sets of prizes, but not more than ten (10) signatures will be accepted for any one organization or individual. Signatures to count for nomination ballots may be sent on any kind of paper. The above blank is for convenience only.

How Prizes Are Awarded

Only one of the first and second prizes offered will be awarded in Atlanta and only one outside of Atlanta. The organization, either in Atlanta or outside, securing the largest number of votes will be entitled to the first prize. For example, if the first prize is won by an organization in Atlanta the second prize will be awarded to an organization outside of Atlanta receiving the largest number of votes of any organization outside of Atlanta, and vice versa. This is arranged so that the first and second prizes respectively cannot both go to organizations in the city of Atlanta, or to organizations outside of the city, but will be apportioned, one in the city and one outside. The third prize will be awarded to organizations and individuals in towns of twelve thousand population and under where at least two or more towns are competing in the contest.

How to Win

All that is necessary to enter the contest is to have ten people nominate their favorite charity, school, lodge, church, or labor union; their favorite individual; their favorite boy or girl, or their favorite amateur ball team, and save labels and sale slips.

There are two ways of winning. First, by voting the labels on any product advertised on the contest page.
Second, by voting the sale slips of any merchant whose name appears on the contest page.

This is no "clipping coupon scheme," and no votes can be secured in any other than the above described way. Labels and sale slips are exchanged at The Constitution's office for "votes."

This is the best prize offer ever made in Atlanta. Get an early start. Begin hustling at once. You do not have to ask anyone for a cent. Just ask your friends to save their labels and sale slips for you.

Those getting the most votes win the prizes.

Conditions

Votes will be given in exchange for labels, wrappers and trade marks of manufacturers' products advertised in contest announcements. Votes will also be given for sale slips, register checks and receipted bills of all merchants advertising in contest announcements, provided slips, checks and bills of such merchants are not over seven days old.

Each sale slip, receipted bill or cash register check must bear the date of purchase or payment and the name of the customer, otherwise they will be void for votes.

Not more than ten thousand (10,000) votes will be given in exchange for sale slips, cash register checks or receipted bills on any single purchase or payment, no matter what the amount or terms of payment may be.

Merchants and manufacturers co-operating in the contest and all newspaper workers are barred from competing from prizes.

In case of tie votes, prizes will be sold and proceeds equally divided.
All contestants entering contest thereby agree that the final decision should any disputes arise shall rest with The Constitution.
Out-of-town contestants may mail or express their labels and sale slips to the Contest Manager, Atlanta Constitution.

LA TEST REPORTS ALL THE MARKETS

HEAVY REALIZING
AFTER ADVANCECotton, However, Closed at a
Net Gain of From 11 to 15 Points.

New York, October 31.—There was further advance during today's early trading in the cotton market, and January contracts sold up to 11.43, or practically 110 points above the low level of two weeks ago. Realizing became very heavy on this advance and the market reacted rather sharply in the late trading, with the close easy, although last prices still showed a net gain of from 11 to 15 points for the day.

The market opened firm at an advance of 15 to 20 points on overnight trading and in sympathy with firm cables. There was heavy profit-taking, as well as some selling for a turn, and after showing a net gain of from 25 to 26 points, prices eased off some 8 to 9 points from the best. But the weather report, with frost or freezing weather, following recent gains, made a bullish impression on sentiment and appeared to stimulate the outside buying movement. Offerings were absorbed very readily on the advance, and the market later in the morning again became firm and excited. Commission houses seemed to be getting numerous buying orders from outside sources, while some of the local traders who had previously opposed the advance became buyers and apprehensive that bad weather in the western belt might cause a further scaling down of speculative estimates of the yield. For a time the market was sensationally active, and the market soon sold into new high ground, with the active months reaching a net gain of about 30 to 31 points. As soon as the demand slackened the market showed the effects of realizing with the selling for a turn also became something of a factor in the late trading. Last prices were about 18 to 20 points from the low of two weeks ago.

New York cotton spot closed steady; middling uplands 11.70; middling gulf 11.85; sales 1,400 bales.

INSURANCE DEPT. MAY BE CLOSED FROM DAY TO DAY

Governor Doubts Constitutionality and Holds Up Salary Warrants.

Colonel William A. Wright, comptroller general and insurance commissioner of the state, said yesterday that the benefits of the new insurance department will be lost to the state for at least a year if the question raised by the governor as to the constitutionality of that act should be upheld by the attorney general.

Colonel Wright's contention is that any doubt should be resolved in favor of the statute, as there is imperative need of the new law to protect the people from the operations of wildcat insurance companies.

The statement of the comptroller general was provoked by the action of Governor Brown in holding up the payment of salary warrants for the employees in the insurance department until he could secure a legal opinion from the attorney general in regard to the constitutionality of the recent act which appropriates $7,500 annually for the operation of the new insurance department.

Colonel Wright in his formal statement issued Thursday said:

"When the constitution of 1877 was adopted, there was no state supervision of the insurance business. The comptroller general at that time was charged with the duty of collecting taxes and licenses from insurance companies just as he was charged with the collection of taxes from public utility corporations and license fees from other sources.

Powers Enlarged in 1887. Ten years later, in 1887, the measure of state supervision was secured under an act passed at the instance of D. M. Roberts, who introduced the bill in the state senate. Under this act the duties of insurance commissioner devolved upon the comptroller general and he was to be paid from license fees collected from the insurance companies. Judge Clifford Anderson, of Macon, then attorney general, held that it was perfectly legal for the legislature to create an office and provide that its duties should devolve upon another official whose salary was fixed under the constitution, and that the legislature might provide for additional payment for such added duties in the new office.

For twenty-three years the comptroller general has discharged the duties of insurance commissioner and has received the fees provided for in the act as compensation.

The act passed by the last legislature was the result of a committee's work. It contains forty sections and develops a vast amount of work upon the insurance department.

The effectiveness of the new act has already been demonstrated and has resulted in several insurance companies going out of business because they could not comply with the requirements of the insurance commissioner.

Colonel Wright says he is thoroughly convinced of the constitutionality of the act and says there is imperative need for the enforcement of the new statute.

DROP IN TEMPERATURE PROMISED FOR TODAY

Showers for today and then a drop in temperature down to about 40 degrees is what is promised for Atlanta weather by the officials of the weather bureau. The sudden change to rain after more than a week of bright, clear skies, has been very unexpected and rather unlooked for, but is in keeping with a cold wave all over the country west of this section.

Latest New York Song.

A ballad with the odd title of "That's How I Need You," is the latest sensation. Unlike many songs with lurid titles, this song, which is being quoted, whistled and sung in New York, played and danced in all the leading academies, bears a clean, though romantic text. A portion of the chorus runs as follows: "Like a broken heart needs gladness, like the flower needs dew, like a baby needs its mother, that's how I need you. That's how I need you. That's how I need you. And bids fair to become the autumn fad with the fair sex." (advertisement.)
